3. Claims 1-20 are allowed.
4. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
5. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ryan T. Grace on March 16, 2005.
6. The application has been amended as follows:

Please replace Claim 1 with the following:

Claim 1 (currently amended): A computer-implemented method for synchronization, comprising:

a synchronization initiator sending a sync key to a synchronization partner; determining a desired synchronization state to synchronize from the sent sync key; and the partner determining when the sent key is valid, and when the sync key is valid; attempting to synchronize with the initiator from the desired synchronization state to current state; and determining when the attempting synchronization was successful.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the 37 CFR 1.131 was persuasive. Claims 1-20 are allowed.

Regarding independent claims 1, 8, and 18, the prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest the claimed provision of: determining a desired synchronization state to synchronize from the sent sync key, the partner determining when the sent key is valid, and when the sync key is valid, attempting to synchronize with the initiator from the desired synchronization state to current state, in conjunction with remaining elements claimed in the independent claims provisions, is not taught or suggested, or rendered obvious over the prior art of record or that encountered in searching the invention.

8. The dependent claims 2- 7, 9-17, and 19-20, being further limiting to the independent claims, definite and enabled by the Specification are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
